

NO. 759 CHANNEL SUMP BOX

The use of a channel sump box is strongly recommended in conjunction with Nos. 10,12 and 14 channels, to prevent water standing in the channel. The occasional cleaning out of the sump box also assists in increasing the life of the channel. It is recommended that a soak-away pit be made under the sump box. The box is constructed of cast iron, complete with lid.

